Young people achieve their full potential through the community accepting collective responsibility for their importance, empowerment, rights, well-being and humanity.

Our Mission

To increase young people's access to legal and social justice by actively supporting and speaking out, with and for young people.

Our Philosophy

YAC's work is underpinned by the following core values:

- An unconditional commitment to the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child
- Confidential, professional and honest engagement with young people
- Respectful engagement with stakeholders and others, for the benefit of young people
- Providing holistic responses to address the interconnected and interdependent issues in young people's lives
- Advocacy for young people, both collectively and individually
- Collective responsibility for working as a team to uphold and achieve YAC's mission and vision

Our Objectives

- 1 To support and advocate for the legal needs and rights of disadvantaged and/or vulnerable young people.

- 2 To support and advocate for disadvantaged and/or vulnerable young people involved in, or at risk of involvement in, legal systems or other processes in relation to their social welfare needs.

- 3 To enable young people, families, and workers with young people, to better understand the law and the legal system as it is relevant to them.

- 4 To support the development of a socio-legal system that is more responsive and appropriate to the needs of young people and which takes account of their developmental and situational issues and Australia's international obligations.

- 5 To provide and maintain high quality support and advocacy services to young people.
